Press Release

New online LGBT social networking site Xycommunity.com to launch at the Sundance Film Festival Queer Lounge January 15, 2009

Stand Up Be Proud. Bringing together one forum and one voice with your help. Xycommunity.com's aim is to facilitate LGBT and LGBT-friendly communities online social networking and allow people with the same interests to openly connect with each other around the world, endorse views and express themselves openly

Manchester, UK / Scotch Plains, NJ USA, January 5, 2009: Xycommunity.com, a new online social networking site for the LGBT and LGBT-friendly communities, will kick off its launch through a sponsorship of the Queer Lounge, the LGBT hub for queer and queer-friendly festival-goers and a program of GLAAD, the Gay & Lesbian Alliance Against Defamation, during the Sundance and Slamdance film festivals in Park City, Utah.

The Queer Lounge is located at 608 Main Street, Park City, UT and will be free and open to the public from 11am to 7pm January 15-21, 2009. The Queer Lounge will offer a hospitality suite, panel discussions, professional mixers and nightly parties. The Lounge will also provide free access to six computers with wi fi capabilities where people will be able to visit xycommunity.com, register as a
